

Help WWII Tule Lake Teacher Find Her 4th Grade Students

Written by Breana Inoshita

When young Katherine Liebert finished university in San Francisco in 1942, she was preparing to enter the workforce of a society stuck by war fervor and the constant bombardment of anti-Japanese rhetoric following the attack on Pearl Harbor. With the face and skin tone of the “good guys,” Katherine probably had several options as to where she would start her career as a grade school teacher, however; Ms. Liebert chose to teach children with faces of the “enemy” when she made the gallant decision to leave her life in San Francisco and teach at the newly opened incarceration camp at Tule Lake. Ms. Liebert taught a class of 40 fourth graders at Tule Lake for one year before marrying her husband, a guard at Tule Lake, and taking on the name of Mrs. Katherine Kirkland.

Mrs. Katherine Kirkland smiles for a photo with Michelle Huey and Joshua Kaizuka.

At 94 years of age, Mrs. Kirkland now resides in a Sacramento-area senior care home and is seeking to reconnect with her former students. Earlier this month, a person close to Mrs. Kirkland reached out to the Florin Japanese American Citizens League (JACL) for assistance in the search for Mrs. Kirkland’s former students. The Florin JACL Civil Rights Committee had the opportunity to meet Mrs. Kirkland and hear her, albeit fragmented, recollection of her year teaching at Tule Lake.

Time is definitely of the essence in this search for her former students. We have a list of all 4th grade students at Tule Lake during the year that Ms. Liebert taught there, but cannot identify which students were in Ms. Liebert’s class without your help!

For additional information, please visit the Florin JACL website at www.florinjacl.com and the chapter’s Facebook page at www.facebook.com/florinjacl.

Here are a couple of ways you can help us reconnect Ms. Liebert with her former students:

- 1.) Look over the list of 4th grade students and see if you recognize any names. A digital version of the list can be accessed at: <https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B7Tjl-OSF4pweEdXSDNZRG5seXM/view?usp=sharing>.
- 2.) If you recognize a name and have a way of contacting the person, ask the person if the name “Ms. Liebert” sounds familiar or if they remember having Ms. Liebert as a teacher.
- 3.) If you cannot access the digital list and/or have additional information about a potential student, please contact Breana Inoshita at bminoshita@ucdavis.edu.
